8. Questions by Members

8.1 Without Notice

8.1.1 Unsanitary Conditions and Hoarding

Councillor Bouchée asked a question regarding Council’s powers in dealing with unsanitary conditions and if there is opportunity to set up a system which records and provide access. Can Council develop a strategy?

The General Manager City Services, Ms T Aukett provided a response and took the question on notice for further investigation regarding entry into properties.

8.1.2 King Street Bridge

Councillor Fisk asked a question regarding the King Street Bridge’s steep rise and its connections.

The General Manager City Assets, Mr Steve Hodge provided a response.

8.2 With Notice

8.2.1 E waste

In accordance with her notice, Councillor Lonie asked the following questions.

1. What is the capacity of Council to fund, jointly with other Councils as waste currently is, the hosting of E waste days, on a monthly basis with a central collection point, for residents?

2. Further, is Administration aware of the spread of schemes where retailers collect old items upon purchase of new items?

3. Is there scope for the extension of these schemes or would this involve the assistance of other forms of government.

The General Manager City Assets, Mr S Hodge’s response.

These questions have been taken on notice and will be answered in the next agenda.
It seems there is more scope for recycling of items rather than the likes of toasters etc ending up in land fill.

8.2.2 Graffiti
In accordance with her notice, Councillor Lonie asked the following questions.

1. What is Council's capacity to respond to graffiti, I understand that other councils have utilised the assistance of volunteers whom can provide a timely response to the removal of graffiti.

2. Can Administration investigate the ability to use volunteers to assist in the removal of graffiti from the City in a timely fashion if there is a need for such a move?

3. Is Administration aware of what the reaction of SAPOL is to graffiti within the city and are there any collaborative measures that may be undertaken between Council, SAPOL, other councils and any other groups to seek to significantly reduce graffiti within the City?

Background
The Mobil site for that is for sale on Brighton Road has been persistently covered in graffiti, creating an eye-saw for residents and perhaps encouraging other nearby acts of vandalism on residents property.

The General Manager City Assets, Mr S Hodge's response.

The City of Holdfast Bay has like all Councils endured indiscriminate acts of graffiti vandalism on its own infrastructure and that of private property for years. While graffiti information is statistically collected (refer to graphs below) the breakdown of this is unknown and the total extent of the issue and its cost is also unknown. It should be noted that Council spends on average $210,000/annum on vandalism/graffiti) however the real cost to Council is probably more than this.

The graph below provides an indication of the increase in graffiti in the last 12 months (from 46 to 705 requests in the 3 month period to June).

The Council does not have any dedicated resources (staff) directly associated with graffiti removal but relies on staff from our Rapid Response Team who also maintain and repair a range of other infrastructure which means that graffiti is sometimes left or not addressed due to other work priorities.

While the winter months provide Council with additional resources (no beach cleaning and reduced service levels along the foreshore) it is also the time that maintenance should be done in preparation for summer but resources have been taken away from this task to address the ever increasing graffiti issue. This when combined with increased service standards along the foreshore and an increased demand for signage leaves a depot workforce at capacity and during summer stretched beyond its capabilities.

As a result of this increased level of graffiti an internal team of staff have been investigating alternative methods of addressing this ever increasing task within our City. It has been agreed that this approach needs to be City wide, responsive and cost effective if there is to be any chance of a reduction in the incidents of graffiti.
It is believed that the best way of providing this service is through a combined Council and volunteer program which would be supported by SAPOL and managed by the Depot. This approach is being further developed internally at this time and a detailed proposal will be put to management shortly. It should be noted that this approach will require additional financial and human resources to achieve the objectives of a city wide, response and cost effective graffiti removal program.

Once a detailed plan is available that coordinates the resources of volunteers, Council staff and SAPOL a detailed report will be provided to Council for consideration.
