This Freedom of Information Statement is published by the City of Holdfast Bay in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 1991.

Further information is available on Council's website <https://www.holdfast.sa.gov.au/>

1 Principal Role of Council

The Local Government Act 1999, (the Act) section 6 states, Council is established to provide for the government and management of its area at the local level and, in particular:

- a) to act as representative, informed and responsible decision-makers in the interests of its community;
- b) to provide and coordinate various public services and facilities and to develop its community and resources in a socially just and ecologically sustainable manner; and
- c) to encourage and develop initiatives within its community for improving the quality of life of the community;
- d) to represent the interests of its community to the wider community; and
- e) to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, functions and duties of local government under the Local Government Act 1999 and other Acts in relation to the area for which it is constituted.

2. Composition of Council

The City of Holdfast Bay consists of the Principal Member (Mayor) and 12 Elected Members (Councillors).

The City is made up of four wards – Glenelg, Somerton, Brighton and Seacliff ward. Each ward is represented by three elected members, with the Mayor representing the whole City.

Council elections are held every four years with the next election scheduled to occur in November 2022.

Members of the public can contact their Elected Members to discuss any issue relevant to the Council (contact details are on Council's webpage).

The Council employs staff to implement the decisions of Council (generally referred to as Council's administration), which is headed by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

Before using a printed or downloaded copy, verify that it is the current version.

Four separate departments report to the CEO:

- Alwyndor Aged Care
- Strategy and Business Services
- Community Services and
- City Assets and Services.

The Act is the primary legislation for the operation of Local Government in South Australia. The provisions of the Act are supported by the Local Government (General) Regulations 2013 and other regulations.

3. Functions of Council

The functions of the Council are prescribed in section 7 of the Act as:

- a) to plan at the local and regional level for the development and future requirements of its area;
- b) to provide services and facilities that benefit its area, its ratepayers and residents, and visitors to its area (including general public services or facilities (including electricity, gas and water services, and waste collection, control or disposal services or facilities), health, welfare or community services or facilities, and cultural or recreational services or facilities);
- c) to provide for the welfare, well-being and interests of individuals and groups within its community;
- d) to take measures to protect its area from natural and other hazards and to mitigate the effects of such hazards;
- e) to manage, develop, protect restore, enhance and conserve the environment in an ecologically sustainable manner, and to improve amenity;
- f) to provide infrastructure for its community and for development within its area (including infrastructure that helps to protect any part of the local or broader community from any hazard or other event, or that assists in the management of any area);
- g) to promote its area and to provide an attractive climate and locations for the development of business, commerce, industry and tourism;
- h) to establish or support organisations or programs that benefit people in its area or local government generally;
- i) to manage and, if appropriate, develop, public areas vested in, or occupied by, the council;
- j) to manage, improve and develop resources available to the council; and
- k) to undertake other functions and activities conferred by or under the Act.

5. Council and Council Committee Meetings (including Council Assessment Panel)

5.1 Council Meetings

Meetings of Council are held on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month commencing at 7pm, except in the months of December and January of each year when there is only one meeting held in each of these months.

Council meetings are held in the Council Chamber, Glenelg Town Hall on the north western corner of Moseley Square, Glenelg on the first floor.

Council Meetings are conducted in accordance with Council's Code of Conduct for Meeting Procedures which incorporates the Local Government Act (Procedures of Meetings) Regulations 2013. These are available to view on Council's webpage.

5.2 Council Committee Meetings

Council committees are appointed under Section 41 of the Act. These are advisory in nature and do not have any delegated decision making powers, unless specified otherwise in their Terms of Reference.

Committees can assist the Council in the performance of its functions and present an opportunity to address issues or projects in more detail in a less formal and interactive way.

Council has five Committees:

- Alwyndor Management Committee (AMC)
- Audit Committee
- Executive Committee
- Jetty Road Mainstreet Committee (JRMC)

Meetings are held on a “as needs basis” at a nominated Council venue.

5.2.6 Council Assessment Panel

The Council Assessment Panel (CAP) is granted delegated powers and is formed by Council in accordance with the requirements of section 83 of the Planning, Development & Infrastructure Act 2016 (the Planning Act). Its delegated powers are administered in accordance with the Operating Procedures adopted by Council and the statutory requirements set out under the Planning Act. The delegations allow CAP to act as the relevant authority for all matters under the Planning Act, in relation to hearings and decisions of certain types for development applications.

A statistical report on decisions of the CAP is provided to Council annually.

CAPs meeting practices are prescribed by the Planning Act as well as its Operating Procedures set by the CAP and adopted by Council.

Meetings are held on the fourth Wednesday of every month at the Civic Centre, 24 Jetty Road, Brighton at 7.00pm.

5.2.7 Section 43 Regional Subsidiaries – Southern Region Waste Resource Authority

Section 43 of the Act provides Council’s with the ability to establish a regional subsidiary. Regional subsidiaries allow two or more council’s to join together to perform a particular function, beneficial to all its members.

The City of Holdfast Bay is a member of the Southern Region Waste Resource Authority (SRWRA) which was established in December 1998 by the cities of Onkaparinga, Marion and Holdfast Bay. Under its charter, SRWRA is responsible for providing and operating waste management services on behalf of the constituent councils.

Every council representative on the board has one vote on every issue and decisions are carried by simple majority. The chairperson has a deliberative vote only. The proportional interest of council members may only be amended by unanimous agreement.

7. Agendas and Minutes

One of the main opportunities for the community to gain information about the business of Council is the agenda for Council and Committee meetings and associated reports related to these matters, with the exception of any material issued on a confidential basis by the Chief Executive Officer and any matters subject to an order of confidentiality under Section 90 of the Act.

Public access to agendas is encouraged. Agendas can be accessed 3 days prior to a meeting available on Council's webpage. Printed copies of agendas of a meeting of Council or a Council Committee are publicly available at the Council's office, 24 Jetty Road Brighton and as soon as practical thereafter at Council libraries located at Brighton and Glenelg.

Minutes are available on Council's webpage within 5 days of a meeting.

8. Community Engagement

The Council is committed to ensuring it provides clear and objective information and it offers opportunities for the public to participate in the decision making which affects them.

The Council's approach to community engagement is intended as a continuum of activities ranging from informing to consulting to more active participation with our communities.

There are many ways for the Council to connect with communities to provide opportunities for community participation on a number of diverse topics.

Council's Community Consultation and Engagement Policy provides further information about the council's approach, including influences on decision making and the decision making process.

9. Delegations and Sub-delegations

In accordance with Sections 44 and 101 of the Act, the Council has delegated relevant powers and duties to the CEO, who may then further sub-delegate these to Council staff. Council may also delegate their powers and functions to a committee of Council.

The Delegations Register reflects the delegated authority from the Council to the Chief Executive Officer and subsequently any sub-delegations. Council will review the delegations as required, but must review in accordance with the Act within 12 months after the conclusion of each periodic election. The Delegations Register is available on Council's website.
